IS THERE any VIRTUE in Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER AND ZYLOBALSAMUM?

Convincing Testimony.

REV. WM. CUTTER, N. Y. City. "My hair is changed to its natural color, and growing on a bald spot."

REV. J. H. CORNELL, N. Y. City. "I procured it for a relative. The falling of the hair stopped, and restored it from being grey to its natural and beautiful color."

REV. J. WEST, Brooklyn, L. I. "I will testify to their value in the most liberal sense. They have restored my hair where it was bald, and, where grey, to its original color."

REV. A. WEBSTER, Boston, Mass. "I have used them with great effect. I am now neither bald nor grey. My hair was dry and brittle, it is now soft as in youth."

REV. H. V. DEGEN, Boston, Mass. "That they promote the growth of the hair where baldness is, I have the evidence of my own eyes."

LETTER FROM NEW ORLEANS.

The Contrabands on the Mississippi.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15.

To sum up the contraband question, I will give a statement of facts and a very few observations.

In Gen. Grant's department there are fifteen regiments organized, which number, in the aggregate, 9,500 men. In General Banks' department there are about twenty-four organized regiments, and four or five under way. A regiment in this department means 500 men, which is the present maximum for colored regiments. The whole number here, in all the regiments, is about 13,000, which would make the number of colored troops on the Mississippi, 22,500.

The recruiting of these troops in General Grant's department is nearly at an end. Until some new vein is opened, nothing of consequence can be done in this line. In this department the recruiting is better, although there is not so wide a license given. In Grant's department the orders are to take all negroes who are able to bear arms; while here the order is to take all between the ages of twenty and thirty years.

The unorganized contrabands in Gen. Grant's department number about 13,000. I have heretofore given details of their condition, employment, etc. The superintendent of this department (Col. Hanks, of the Corps d'Afrique) informs me that the whole number of freedmen, aside from the soldiers, is about 15,000, 10,000 of whom are hired out on plantations, and 5,000 are in camp here and at Baton Rouge. I know that Col. Hanks is mistaken in the number, because where 13,000 troops are raised, the number of women and children and infirm men will amount to much more than 15,000. But I have only his statement to go upon, with no earthly means of correcting it.

The health of the colored soldiers is certainly better in this department than in Gen. Grant's; but the mortality among the unorganized freedmen is about the same.

There has always been a violent prejudice in this department against making the negro a United States soldier. Among the private soldiers this prejudice has almost disappeared; but among the officers it exists in its original bitterness.

Humbly submitting to the better judgment of any body else, I think the corps d'Afrique will not meet the expectations of its friends—not from any inherent difficulty of making a soldier of the black man, but from the manner in which the corps is organized. To insure the success of any troops the officers should be brave and skillful; and [illegible] success of troops naturally [illegible] [illegible] should be taken in the selection of officers, both commissioned and non commissioned.—Now, the commissioned officers of the corps d'Afrique are men not selected from the white regiments, but men who, unable to gain position in their former organizations, have applied for and begged their present positions; and the only qualification asked for a non commissioned officer is that he can read and write. With the full complement of officers and sergeants of the right kind, there is no doubt the negro can be made to fight as well as the white man; but with the officers and sergeants in use here, I look for nothing miraculous from the corps d'Afrique.

ARISTOCRATIC MARRIAGES IN FRANCE—HOW THE MATCHES ARE NEGOTIATED.—The French method of negotiating marriages, for instance, which had been long known, and about which no secrecy had ever been observed, yet had never been duly weighed and its legality tested before the tribunals. This week has, however, presented this entirely novel feature in French life for approval or refusal by French jurisprudence. Madame de Saint Marc, the great purveyor of fortune and position in the shape of husband or wife, according to the demand made upon her ingenuity, appeared before the court the other day to demand exoneration from payment of the license by which she is styled "a business agent." Madame de Saint Marc is a woman of high respectability and great influence. She calls herself a femme serieuse, and, holding herself responsible for the real existence of the generally fantastic delusion called a dot, by promise of which mothers manage to get their daughters married, is, of course, accustomed to sift every circumstance, motive and expression to the very bottom.

Madame de Saint Marc has become one of the greatest authorities in Paris. Let no man imagine that he marries the woman of his choice. However much he may fancy himself smitten with the bright eyes and ruby lips of the fair creature to whom he is introduced for the first quadrille by the respectable lady with gray hair whom he has known from childhood—however much he may admire the lightness and elegance of the figure and the charm and wit of her conversation, he will not be allowed to fall in love by Madame de Saint Marc, whose "work" he is contemplating, unless his fortune has borne the test of scrutiny between the respectable old lady with gray hair and the business agent of whom we speak. All has been canvassed, weighed and discussed before hand. The incidents have been arranged; nay, the very ball where at he meets the fair damsel "by accident" has been got up for this very purpose.

Madame de Saint Marc keeps an elegant establishment. A servant in livery receives your card in a sort of poor's box, of which Madame keeps the key so that your face alone and not your name is made familiar to the lacquey. She receives you in a room hung round with portraits of all the young ladies for whom she wishes to do business in your particular case. She has an album of photographic likenesses, where each fair customer is presented, with a reference in cypher of her dot and the pretensions to be satisfied. These vary according to birth, station and accomplishments; but the grand question of the dot always ranks first, and the want of it would never be compensated by any degree of beauty, talent, or virtue in the fair aspirant to matrimony.

The heart of La Jeune France has become inaccessible to any enthusiasm save that created by the prospect of an easy and contented old age.

"It was clearly intended that in case of 'rebellion,' &c., this writ [habeas corpus] might be suspended. OTHERWISE THE RANKEST TREASON MIGHT GO UNWHIPPED OF JUSTICE."—Madison Patriot as it was.

Sun shine comes after the storm.

SOUTH CAROLINA AND MASSACHUSETTS—A CONTRAST.—The National Anti-Slavery Standard (N. Y.) says: "Though slavery has not, until now, been the object of direct and determined attack, she has felt her full share of the evils which have followed the train of the rebellion. Many of her most wealthy inhabitants have been reduced to absolute poverty through our occupation of the sea islands, and all property holders must have had ruinous losses in consequence of the derangement of all the established investments. She has been brought low from her pride of place, and has reaped only poverty and sorrow from what she expected would bring her power and wealth such as she had never possessed. South Carolina and Massachusetts, Charleston and Boston, have often been contrasted and compared as the two communities which incarnated the two opposite ideas of free labor and slave labor.

"The result of the two years of this war is an instructive lesson as to the vitality of those principles in their operation on the condition of the communities inspired by them. South Carolina has more slaves than white citizens, which gives her every advantage in the trial of the experiment, which of the two systems is the most profitable for public wealth and strength? She has, or had, a soil infinitely remunerative of labor, and which did once pour all but boundless wealth into her lap. Massachusetts, on the contrary, lying farther from the sun, with a soil which grants no blessings that are not wrestled for manfully, has no fortunate gifts of nature to exempt her from toil, and has no unhappy race to be compelled to toil for her. Yet the contrast between the material prosperity of Boston and Massachusetts and her own was one of the keenest stimulants of the sectional hatred which led South Carolina into rebellion.

"STRUCK A LEAD."—John Rich and Simeon E. Lewis are the owners of a mineral discovery at Potosi, supposed to be good for a lode. They claim this discovery now good for a daily yield of 4,000 to 6,000 pounds of mineral, or $200 to $300 per day income, rating mineral at $55 per 1,000. Best of all, the partners will not trifle away any part, but hold and apply the proceeds as permanent capital. We are tired of these great, rich mineral discoveries, unless the proprietors are such as to be benefitted and the country permanently blessed, rather than damaged by the results. Of the $700,000 to $1,000,000 worth of mineral annually taken from the bowels of Grant county, perhaps not over a third is usefully applied, or invested in a manner to benefit either owner, or the state. Most of it goes for luxuries or is lost at games, the losers in a few months craving to want for such supports as they are unfitted to earn by labor as they once were. Messrs. Rich and Lewis will save the whole of theirs for a permanent taxable pile, and the investment thereof will not damage them nor the state. No charge for this notice.—Grant County Herald.

LETTER FROM NEW ORLEANS.

The Contrabands on the Mississippi.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15.

To sum up the contraband question, I will give a statement of facts and a very few observations.

In Gen. Grant's department there are fifteen regiments organized, which number, in the aggregate, 9,500 men. In General Banks' department there are about twenty-four organized regiments, and four or five under way. A regiment in this department means 500 men, which is the present maximum for colored regiments. The whole number here, in all the regiments, is about 13,000, which would make the number of colored troops on the Mississippi, 22,500.

The recruiting of these troops in General Grant's department is nearly at an end. Until some new vein is opened, nothing of consequence can be done in this line. In this department the recruiting is better, although there is not so wide a license given. In Grant's department the orders are to take all negroes who are able to bear arms; while here the order is to take all between the ages of twenty and thirty years.

The unorganized contrabands in Gen. Grant's department number about 43,000. I have heretofore given details of their condition, employment, etc. The superintendent of this department (Col. Hanks, of the Corps d' Afrique) informs me that the whole number of freedmen, aside from the soldiers, is about 15,000, 10,000 of whom are hired out on plantations, and 5,000 are in camp here and at Baton Rouge. I know that Col. Hanks is mistaken in the number, because where 13,000 troops are raised, the number of women and children and infirm men will amount to much more than 15,000. But I have only his statement to go upon, with no earthly means of correcting it.

The health of the colored soldiers is certainly better in this department than in Gen. Grant's; but the mortality among the unorganized freedmen is about the same.

There has always been a violent prejudice in this department against making the negro a United States soldier. Among the private soldiers this prejudice has almost disappeared; but among the officers it exists in its original bitterness.

Humbly submitting to the better judgment of any body else, I think the corps d'Afrique will not meet the expectations of its friends—not from any inherent difficulty of making a soldier of the black man, but from the manner in which the corps is organized. To insure the success of any troops the officers should be brave and skillful; and to insure the success of troops naturally unre[illegible] st care should be taken in the selection of officers, both commissioned and non-commissioned.—Now, the commissioned officers of the corps d'Afrique are men not selected from the white regiments, but men who, unable to gain position in their former organizations, have applied for and begged their present positions; and the only qualification asked for a non-commissioned officer is that he can read and write. With the full complement of officers and sergeants of the right kind, there is no doubt the negro can be made to fight as well as the white man; but with the officers and sergeants in use here, I look for nothing miraculous from the corps d'Afrique.

ARISTOCRATIC MARRIAGES IN FRANCE—HOW THE MATCHES ARE NEGOTIATED.—The French method of negotiating marriages, for instance, which had been long known, and about which no secresy had ever been observed, yet had never been duly weighed and its legality tested before the tribunals. This week has, however, presented this entirely novel feature in French life for approval or refusal by French jurisprudence. Madame de Saint Marc, the great purveyor of fortune and position in the shape of husband or wife, according to the demand made upon her ingenuity, appeared before the court the other day to demand exoneration from payment of the license by which she is styled "a business agent." Madame de Saint Marc is a woman of high respectability and great influence. She calls herself a femme serieuse, and, holding herself responsible for the real existence of the generally fantastic delusion called a dot, by promise of which mothers manage to get their daughters married, is, of course, accustomed to sift every circumstance, motive and expression to the very bottom.

Madame de Saint Marc has become one of the greatest authorities in Paris. Let no man imagine that he marries the woman of his choice. However much he may fancy himself smitten with the bright eyes and ruby lips of the fair creature to whom he is introduced for the first quadrille by the respectable lady with gray hair whom he has known from childhood—however much he may admire the lightness and elegance of the figure and the charm and wit of her conversation, he will not be allowed to fall in love by Madame de Saint Marc, whose "work" he is contemplating, unless his fortune has borne the test of scrutiny between the respectable old lady with gray hair and the business agent of whom we speak. All has been canvassed, weighed and discussed before hand. The incidents have been arranged; nay, the very ball whereat he meets the fair damsel "by accident" has been got up for this very purpose.

Madame de Saint Marc keeps an elegant establishment. A servant in livery receives your card in a sort of poor's box, of which Madame keeps the key so that your face alone and not your name is made familiar to the lacquey. She receives you in a room hung round with portraits of all the young ladies for whom she wishes to do business in your particular case. She has an album of photographic likenesses, where each fair customer is presented, with a reference in cypher of her dot and the pretensions to be satisfied. These vary according to birth, station and accomplishments; but the grand question of the dot always ranks first, and the want of it would never be compensated by any degree of beauty, talent, or virtue in the fair aspirant to matrimony.

The heart of La Jeune France has become inaccessible to any enthusiasm save that created by the prospect of an easy and contented old age.

"It was clearly intended that in case of 'rebellion,' &c., this writ [habeas corpus] might be suspended. OTHERWISE THE RANKEST TREASON MIGHT GO UNWHIPPED OF JUSTICE."—Madison Patriot as it was. [illegible]

Sun shine comes after the storm.

SOUTH CAROLINA AND MASSACHUSETTS—A CONTRAST.—The National Anti-Slavery Standard (N. Y.) says: "Though slavery has not, until now, been the object of direct and determined attack, she has felt her full share of the evils which have followed the train of the rebellion. Many of her most wealthy inhabitants have been reduced to absolute poverty through our occupation of the sea islands, and all property holders must have had ruinous losses in consequence of the derangement of all the established investments. She has been brought low from her pride of place, and has reaped only poverty and sorrow from what she expected would bring her power and wealth such as she had never possessed. South Carolina and Massachusetts, Charleston and Boston, have often been contrasted and compared as the two communities which incarnated the two opposite ideas of free labor and slave labor.

"The result of the two years of this war is an instructive lesson as to the vitality of those principles in their operation on the condition of the communities inspired by them. South Carolina has more slaves than white citizens, which gives her every advantage in the trial of the experiment, which of the two systems is the most profitable for public wealth and strength? She has, or had, a soil infinitely remunerative of labor, and which did once pour all but boundless wealth into her lap. Massachusetts, on the contrary, lying farther from the sun, with a soil which grants no blessings that are not wrestled for manfully, has no fortunate gifts of nature to exempt her from toil, and has no unhappy race to be compelled to toil for her. Yet the contrast between the material prosperity of Boston and Massachusetts and her own was one of the keenest stimulants of the sectional hatred which led South Carolina into rebellion.

"STRUCK A LEAD."—John Rich and Simeon E. Lewis are the owners of a mineral discovery at Potosi, supposed to be good for a lode. They claim this discovery now good for a daily yield of 4,000 to 6,000 pounds of mineral, or $200 to $300 per day income, rating mineral at $55 per 1,000. Best of all, the partners will not trifle away any part, but hold and apply the proceeds as permanent capital. We are tired of these great, rich mineral discoveries, unless the proprietors are such as to be benefitted and the country permanently blessed, rather than damaged by the results. Of the $700,000 to $1,000,000 worth of mineral annually taken from the bowels of Grant county, perhaps not over a third is usefully applied, or invested in a manner to benefit either owners or the state. Most of it goes for luxuries or is lost at games, the losers in a few months coming to want for such supports as they are unfitted to earn by labor as they once were. Messrs. Rich and Lewis will save the whole of theirs for a permanent taxable pile, and the investment thereof will not damage them nor the state. No charge for this notice.—Grant County Herald.

WHAT C. L. VALLANDIGHAM SAID!

"I HAVE NOT VOTED FOR ANY ARMY OR NAVY BILL, OR ANY ARMY OR NAVY APPROPRIATION, SINCE THE MEETING OF CONGRESS ON THE 4th OF JULY, 1861.—Vallandigham, Dayton, August, 1862.

"He [Vallandigham] does not think reunion can ever be accomplished by coercion; but goes for peace, hoping that Union may result; BUT AT ANY RATE HE GOES FOR PEACE, PREFERRING EVEN SEPARATION TO SUBJUGATION OR EXTERMINATION."—Wilmington, N. C. Journal.

"I propose to * * * recognize the existence of sections as a fixed fact."

"I propose to establish FOUR instead of two grand sections of the Union."—Speech Feb. 20, 1861.

"Then, sir, I am not a southern man neither—ALTHOUGH IN THIS MOST UNHOLY AND UNCONSTITUTIONAL CRUSADE AGAINST the SOUTH, in the midst of the INVASION, ARSON, INSURRECTION AND MURDER TO WHICH SHE HAS BEEN SUBJECT, and with which she is still threatened—with the TORCH OF THE INCENDIARY AND THE DAGGER OF THE ASSASSIN SUSPENDED OVER HER—MY MOST CORDIAL SYMPATHIES ARE WHOLLY WITH HER."—Page 44, Val's Record.

WHAT H. L. PALMER SAID!

I HOPE TO SEE THE DISGRACEFUL ASSAULT UPON AMERICAN RIGHTS IN THE PERSON OF VALLANDIGHAM, CULMINATE IN HIS ELECTION TO THE OFFICE OF GOVERNOR OF OHIO.

A MODIFICATION.—The war department has at length made a modification of the president's proclamation suspending the habeas corpus act, and hereafter the civil courts will be allowed to take cognizance as heretofore of all cases for the discharge of minors improperly enlisted, and illegally detained by the military authorities.

This announcement is made by the adjutant general in a dispatch to Mr. Simon Stern, a lawyer of New York, in relation to the case of a minor in which he was interested. This decision will afford a sensible relief to the community and legal profession, and relieves from the president's proclamation a feature that has rendered it difficult, if not impossible, to obtain redress for those who cannot legally be detained in the army.

HOW TO CONDUCT THE WAR.—"Always strike an enemy in his most vulnerable part, and as we know of no subject more tender to southern consciences than their slaves, let such a blow be struck as will make every rebel howl with midnight affright, for fear of a servile insurrection!"—Madison Patriot as it was.

One Day For the Country.

An important election is to be held to-morrow in this state. We trust the people of this city realize its transcendant interest. It is not alone that we are to elect state officers, but the people are also to show their detestation of copperheadism. The larger the majority against the friends of the rebels the greater will be the influence of our vote. See what a mighty power the 100,000 majority in Ohio wields. It is felt in England and France, as well as throughout America. The mere election of Brough by a thousand or two majority would have had but a trifling effect, but the majesty of the vast majority is appalling to the rebel cause everywhere.

Let us imitate, as far as possible, the grand example of Ohio and our own neighboring state of Iowa. Roll up the majority mountain high; cover up the disloyal element among us, and bury it so deep that the hand of resurrection can never reach it. It is shameful that such a party exists amongst a loyal people, and let Tuesday night find them wiped out of existence. We must have 20,000 majority in Wisconsin against the copperhead ticket, or feel that we have not done our whole duty.

Turn out, to-morrow, and give one day to your country. Work all day. Entreat your friends not to vote for H. L. Palmer. Look after the old and feeble and get them to the polls early. Hunt up the laggards and the heedless. Let every man say to himself to-night, "I will save at least one vote to-morrow for the Union state ticket," and perform his pledge. So shall victory crown our efforts, and our country be saved.

The National Debt.

The copperhead speakers dwell much upon the national debt which has been caused by the effort to suppress the rebellion. We do not think they have any right to make this objection. When they were turned out of the administration of of the government they left a debt of $90,000,000, although we have had no war in thirteen years. We had peace and prosperity in all our borders, and yet Buchanan so mismanaged matters that he left the chair with this debt. Probably the money was expended in purchasing arms to be distributed by Floyd to the southern rebels.

But do these persons who object to our national debt, expect that a gigantic war like ours can be carried on without money? Let them point, if they can, to any nation which has ever engaged in war without borrowing money. It is not just that this generation should fight the battles of all future generations, and pay the expenses of the war besides. Let those who come after us pay the debt. It is their duty to do so, and we doubt not they will acknowledge and honor the obligation.

Our debt is truly very great, but this is the greatest war that any nation ever engaged in. There have been and are more men employed in it than in any other in the history of the human race, while the material forces engaged in the shape of armored ships, improved implements of war, and railroads, are ten times more various and expensive than during any other war. We should anticipate nothing less than expenditures on a grand scale in a contest involving half a continent and millions of men.

It is too late to say that it is an unnecessary war, since it must be fought out, whatever its cost, or the Union will be divided, and the people have decided that "the Union must and shall be preserved," whatever the expenditure of men and money.

We have, therefore, a war which must be prosecuted, and the expenses of which, necessarily large, must be put in the form of a debt. Patriotic men cannot preserve their consistency and rail against this debt, unless they mean to favor a submission to the rebels. No man who is a friend to his country will now go about howling against a national debt that is necessary for the preservation of the Union.

Our national debt amounted to $1,228,000,000 in September last. Large as this sum is it is less than half the national debt of England and less than two thirds of that of France, and yet those countries were never as prosperous as they are now. The debt of England is $3,917,915,913, with an annual interest of $127,965,706; and that of France is $2,206,000,000, with an annual interest of $110,000,000. This makes a debt in England, for each person, of $135.55; in France of $61.28; and in this country about $36 to each person.

This is not a heavy debt for a young and vigorous people whose material wealth amounted, in real and personal property, according to the census of 1860, to $16,159,616,068, which is more than double what it was in 1850. When it is considered that we add to our national wealth every five years enough to pay our present national debt three times over, we are not in a very dangerous financial condition, and our debt ought not to alarm any sensible person.

We have no doubt that we have added to our wealth as a nation, since the war commenced, more than enough to pay two debts of the present magnitude. If an individual should find his affairs in this financial condition he would not consider himself in any danger, but would press forward with a certainty that with common foresight, economy and industry, he could pay his debts in a few years, and save his whole estate; and such we doubt not will be the judgment of the people. They will pay no heed to copperhead alarmists who desire the war to stop, and are willing that the rebels should succeed.

West Virginia follows the example of Pennsylvania and Ohio, she having elected the Union candidates for congress in her three districts, by large majorities. Blair, Brown and Whaley are the congressmen elect, and they are all unconditional Union men.

The citizens of Bangor, Maine, are to erect a monument of Concord granite, 27 feet high, in memory of the soldiers from that city who have fallen in defense of their country.

Operations of the Draft—Letter from Provost Marshal Fry—Interesting Army Statistics.

PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1863.

SIR:—I have the honor to report for your information certain general facts connected with the draft as shown by reports made up to this time.

The machinery for executing the enrollment act is in complete working order. The law as it stands cannot be made to develope the entire military strength of the nation, and the execution of it has been rendered exceedingly difficult by the efforts made in various ways to resist or evade it, or to escape from its operation.

Its fruits, therefore, are not as abundant as they will be from a perfect law and more thoroughly established system of executing it. All the advantages, however, which could reasonably have been expected from the law are accruing.

Its general principles distribute the burdens of military service fairly among those liable to bear them, but there is perhaps more generosity than justness in some of its humane provisions. With certain modifications which can readily be made by congress, the military strength of the country may, by the direct and indirect operation of this act, be surely and cheaply brought into the field.

Several of the western states have not been subjected to the present draft on account of the excess of volunteers heretofore furnished, and from the same cause the quotas in other western states are rendered quite small; the present draft is therefore but a partial one, and no specific total was established as to the quota for it.

Of those drawn in the present draft, including the 50 per cent. additional, over 80 per cent. have reported in accordance with the orders of the boards. Of the 20 per cent. who have not reported, many are not willful deserters, being unavoidably absent at sea and the like. The deserters are being arrested.

Of all examined, about 30 per cent have been exempted on account of physical disability, about 30 per cent have been exempted under the provisions of the second section of the act, or found not liable to military duty on account of alienage, unsuitableness of age, non-resident, &c. Those who are not liable to military duty, and form no part of the national forces, and therefore have been erroneously enrolled, appear in the general report of the boards among those exempted, because their non-liability to serve could not be established until they came before the boards. The number of the exemptions is thus made to appear much larger than it really is.

About 40 per cent of the men examined have been held to service, and have entered the army in person, furnished substitutes, or paid commutation.

About one-half of those held to service have paid commutation; of the remainder, about one-third have gone in person, and two-thirds have furnished substitutes, and all except a few in transit and a small proportion of deserters from among the earlier substitutes accepted, are in the ranks of their regiments, in front of the enemy. It is fair to suppose that most of those who willfully fail to report, and thus become deserters, are physically fit for service; if they had been examined, the proportion exempted for physical disability would have been reduced to about twenty-five per cent. The proportion of exemptions would be still further reduced by purging the enrollment lists, before draft, of all cases of manifest unfitness, and of aliens and others not liable to military duty, as may be done where this system of raising troops is well established.

The proportions above given are based upon the reports up to this time from the seventy-three congressional districts where the draft has been completed or has most nearly approached completion.

Since the present rebellion began about 200,000 soldiers, after entering service, have been discharged on surgeons' certificate of disability. It is probable that at least one-half of them were unfit for service when received. It may be surely said that $10,000,000 of money was uselessly expended in bringing them into the field, to say nothing of their subsequent expense to the government.

In Great Britain, under the system of voluntary enlistments, the rejections average over 27 per cent. In France, from 1831 to 1842, the average number of exemptions annually was 94,860, so that to secure the contingent of 80,000 men, 174,860 conscripts were annually examined.

Of the recruits who presented themselves for enlistment in our regular army in 1862, 70 per cent. were rejected for physical infirmities, exclusive of age or stature. Between the first of January and the 1st of July last more than one half were rejected. These were men who desired to be accepted. These proportions are of interest in connection with the fact that less than one third of the drafted men who desire not to be accepted have been exempted on account of physical unfitness.

There have been but few cases of incompetency, fraud, neglect or abuse in the examination of drafted men. These men have, however, in many ways, been swindled by rouges having no connection with the board of enrollment; as for example, the fact that certain drafted men were physically unfit for service has become known to those sharpers, when it was perhaps not known to the men themselves, and they have so far imposed upon the credulity of the drafted men as to get from them sums of money to secure an exemption, to which the rouges knew they were entitled and would surely receive, and the drafted men, finding themselves exempted as promised, have sometimes thought and given out that they secured exemption by bribery of drafting officers, whereas they were legally entitled to exemption, and have themselves been swindled by sharpers.

All has been done that seemed proper under existing laws to check those evils, and to meet properly the few cases of criminality and incompetency which have occured among the officers at this bureau.

All the expenditures up to this time, on account of this bureau, including the enrollment, draft, and pay of officers and men connected with it, are but little over $1,200,000. These expenditures include all made on account of the machinery which has produced the arrest and return of 20,000 deserters.

The amount of money received from the draft up to this date is about ten times as great as all the expenses incurred on account of the enrollment act; those resulting from the New York riots are not, however, included in this statement, as they are more properly attributable to other causes and other persons than the draft or the officers of this bureau. I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JAMES B. FRY,
Provost Marshal General.

HON. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

THE QUOTA OF NEW YORK.—Provost Marshal General Fry has notified Governor Seymour that the correct quota of New York under the proclamation of October 17th, is 60,378. General Fry also advises Governor Seymour that New York was deficient on the 17th of October 47,657 men, so that the whole number of volunteers to be raised before January next, to avoid a new draft, 108,035.

Our National Finances.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.

The subscription agent reports the sale to-day of government bonds of $6,564,700. The sale for the five days of this week reach twenty millions, and the probability is that ten millions will be taken on Saturday.

The amount remaining unsold does not exceed $150,000,000, which may be taken before the close of November.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—On the first of September last the public debt amounted to $1,228,832,771. It is composed as follows:

Four per cent. temporary loan	$27,7[illegible]
Five per cent. temporary loan	71,[illegible]
Old treasury notes	[illegible]
Seven 3 10 loan	139,[illegible]
Two year 6 per cent. loan	[illegible]
Old public debt	67,[illegible]
Suspended requisitions	25,[illegible]
United states treasury notes	3[illegible]
Fractional currency	1[illegible]
Twenty-year bonds	60,[illegible]
Oregon war debt	[illegible]
Certificates of indebtedness	153,[illegible]
Five twenty bonds	2[illegible]
Total	$1,228,832,771 11

The total amount of the first issue of fractional currency was $20,192,455. The total amount outstanding a few days ago was $17,462,050.

The total amount of one and two dollar notes issued was $33,776,000. Of these there are now outstanding $22,716,697.

The total amount of five dollar notes issued has been $87,055,000.

The total amount of ten dollar notes issued has been $93,960,000.

On the 1st of May, 1863, the public debt amounted to $964,045,216. The increase in four months, up to September 1, has been $264,787,555—which is at the rate of $66,106,888 75 per month, and over $2,200,000 per day. In connection with this statement, it is proper to say, that a semi-official intimation has been given here that inasmuch as the sales of the five twenty government 6 per cents amounted for the twenty days of this October to the enormous sum of $36,107,400, (auguring a rapidly increasing popularity,) and the demand from Europe for these bonds increases steadily and without solicitation; and the amount of the loan yet unsold is considerably less than $200,000,000, and at the present rate of sales it will soon be absorbed, the secretary may see fit to withdraw it from the market and obtain what money he needs upon terms more favorable to the government. The fifty millions borrowed at five per cent., interest payable in currency, is referred to, and a contrast between that interest and the interest on the five twenties, which, payable in gold, is equivalent to nine per cent.

The sales of five-twenties during the past week amounted to $9,453,950, and were distributed as follows:

In New York and vicinity	$2,693,500
In Boston and vicinity	[illegible]
In the state of Rhode Island	[illegible]
In the state of Pennsylvania	2,310,500
In the state of New Jersey	[illegible]

In the district of Columbia	[illegible]
In the state of Western Virginia	[illegible]
In the state of Ohio	[illegible]

Last Night's Report.

VICKSBURG, Oct. 28, via Cairo, 31.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—It is and has been raining for more than twenty four hours. Everything is very dull. There is no news of interest. The military commission to examine the title to property by loyalty is in session. There does not seem to have been any rebels among the people. All were loyal but compelled to seem friendly to the confederacy. Those not owning property are less loyal than the wealthy. Wealth is a great incentive to Union sentiments.

CAIRO, Oct. 31, 1863.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The town of Tuscumbia has been captured by our forces, and Gen. Osterhaus' division is now in possession, but I was unable to learn the date or particulars of the occurrence. It is supposed by my informant that it took place on the 27th inst. Firing was heard, at least, in that direction on that day.

Forrest and Wheeler's rebel forces are in the vicinity, endeavoring to prevent our troops from advancing.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.

The subscription agent reports the sales 16,500,000 five-twenties on Saturday, making over 360,000,000.

Some delay may be experienced in the delivery of large subscriptions, but it is the intention as far as possible to deliver on subscriptions all amounts less than 3,000. The public will bear in mind that less than $150,000,000 of these bonds remain unsold, and that foreign completion is very heavy. The loan will probably all be taken by the first of December, and there is no obligation on the part of the treasurer to retain it for public bidding.

The last $100,000,000 will therefore be taken by capitalists, trust companies and bankers for investments, and it is the wish of the subscription agent, to avoid any favoritism to combinations by giving the people timely notice of the contingencies of the loan being consumed and summarily placed beyond their reach, except at a premium.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.

At the suggestion of numerous medical officers attached to the hospitals in this city, a large number of sick and wounded soldiers have been, and are being, furloughed for a short time, in order that they may be sent to their homes in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Michigan, and other states.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.

The steamship Hecla from Liverpool 20th, via Queenstown 21st, arrived this forenoon. She brings few items of news.

The [illegible] Herald confirms that the [illegible] the [illegible] each.

Mason, the southern commissioner, was again in England, the guest of W. S. Lindsey, of London.

France refuses to guarantee the Mexican loan, and there is trouble between Maximilian and the French government on that question.

Official news from Japan states that in the attack on and the destruction of Kagosima, the English fleet lost eleven killed and thirty wounded. Captains Goslin and Wilmost were killed.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 1.

An extraordinary case of treason has recently come to light, implicating several persons in this city, Columbus, Covington and Newport, in conspiring to release rebel prisoners at Camp Chase and overthrow the state government. The conspiracy was brought to light by United States detectives, who were supposed by the parties implicated to be spies from the rebel army, and were treated with full confidence.

The plot, as disclosed to the detectives, was that an attack be made on Camp Chase, release the prisoners confined there, numbering 3,500, seize the arsenal at Columbus, take possession of the penitentiary, release John Morgan and other officers confined there, and then was to commence a rebel campaign in Ohio. United States Marshal Sands and Provost Marshal Remy arrested the following persons implicated in the plot:

Chas. W. H. Cathcart, of Columbus, formerly school commissioner of Ohio.

J. D. Cresap, of Columbus, formerly sutler of the 18th regulars, who were to lead the attack on Camp Chase.

James D. Patton, of Covington, a regular agent of the rebel government, who frequently furnished money to detectives, under the impression they were spies, and according to agreement met Cathcart and others at Camp Chase, and assisted to mature the plan of attack.

Ruth McDonald, of Covington, who acted as mail carrier through the rebel lines, and whose house was the headquarters of the rebels.

Samuel P. Thomas, merchant tailor of Cincinnati, and his wife, and Catharine Parmenter, of Cincinnati.

Information was obtained that an organization exists in Illinois, waiting for the outbreak in Ohio to produce similar results in that state. Other particulars are known to the authorities, but not yet made public.

CAIRO, Nov. 1.

I have the Memphis Bulletin of the 30th ult. The news is unimportant.

Private advices from below report Sherman skirmishing daily with Lee, Roddy and Forest. Everything in the war line in that region is contraband.

A heavy rain fell at Memphis.

The steamer Mary E. Forsyth arrived to-night, 28 hours from Memphis. She brings dates to the evening of the 31st.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.

Col. Robert Nugent, A. A. P. M. Gen., New York.

The representations made by Dean Richmond and Peter Cagger in a printed circular dated October 27, 1863, in respect to the actions of the provost marshal general are untrue. It is not true that the state of New York is charged as with a deficiency for every citizen who has paid the three hundred dollar commutation money receiving no credit therefor. On the contrary the state receives the same credit for a man who has paid commutation as if the drafted citizen had gone in person or furnished the substitute, and in like manner towns which have raised the money to pay for their quotas receive the same credit as if actual substitutes had been furnished.

The president has ordered that every citizen who has paid the $300 commutation, shall receive the same credit therefor as if he had furnished a substitute, and is exonerated from military service for the time for which he was drafted, to wit, for three years.

As the misrepresentations of Dean Richmond and Peter Cagger have been published and circulated for electioneering purposes, it is proper that you give them immediate correction.

JAMES B. FRY,
Provost Marshal General.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.

Special to Tribune.—We learn from the army of the Potomac that the principal movements of late have been changes of position of the different corps. These changes have occasioned skirmishes, but without serious loss on either side. Guerillas continue their depredations on wagon trains. The impression prevailed at headquarters that Lee is disposed to fight, and Meade's intention was to accommodate him at the earliest opportunity. There are those, however, who continue to think Lee's army has been materially reduced, and any show of intention to fight is merely to conceal his weakness.

Times' special.—A gentleman just from Richmond says the rebel government is seizing all boots and shoes in that city for the use of Lee's army, which is almost barefooted.

Two Herald correspondents, Messrs. Hart and Hendricks, were gobbled yesterday at Auburn by Mosby's guerrillas.

Maj. Gen. Butler has been assigned to the command of the 18th army corps, department of Virginia and North Carolina, in place of Gen. Foster, who is ordered to report here to the adjutant general. Circumstances indicate that Gen. Foster will have the command of the defences of Washington.

The World's Army of the Potomac dispatch of Sunday says it is still quiet. There has not been any firing on our front for the last three days. The Army of the Potomac is in excellent position on its line of supplies. Should any contingency arise it can with equal facility be concentrated either to advance, or repulse the enemy. To-morrow the railroad between Alexandria and Warrenton will be again open.

The Herald has the following:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.

The usual Sunday rumors of battles and skirmishing prevail to-day. All of them, however, have been traced to the fact of the unusual stir prevailing in those bureaus of the war department immediately connected with the movements of the army, and, certain preparations have been observed usually made upon the eve of a great battle. It is known that Meade on our side and Lee on the other are manoeuvering for a favorable position, but the opinion prevails in military circles here that Lee will not risk a battle outside of his entrenchments on the south side of the Rapidan, which can be held by a small force against a great army, and leave him at liberty to send a part of his forces to meet an attack in a body and compel it, as before, to fall back north of the Rappahannock.

Brig. Gen. Hatch has been assigned to duty at St. Louis, in charge of the cavalry department to be established at that point.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

CAPE RACE, N. F. 1.

The steamer China, from Liverpool 24th, and Queenstown 25th, passed here Sunday evening. News unimportant.

Cotton 1/4d better, closed less firm. Breadstuffs steady. Provisions dull, with tending downwards; closed quiet and steady. Consols 93 3/8.

The London Herald says the capture of the steamer Sir Robert Peel off Rio Grande by the [illegible] attracts no attention. It is alleged there was not the slightest ground for the capture. A Paris letter to the London Daily News anticipates that the semi-official press of Paris will receive orders to say, that after all the Mexican people simply desire annexation to France.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.

Flour dull for common, firm for good, at 6.20a6.25 for extra state; 7.20a7.30 for R H O. Wheat receipts 240,976; dull, 1a2c lower at 1.30a1.35 for Chicago spring and Milwaukee club; 1.36a1.37 for No. 1 do; 1.37.1.45 for red winter. Corn receipts 44,145; dull at 1.06 for mixed in store. Oats quiet at 81a83. Stocks dull and lower. Money is exceedingly active at 9. Sterling nominal. No quotations of gold received.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 2.

The Journal learns that S. D. Lee, Wheeler, Roddy and Forrest are in the neighborhood of Decatur, Courtland and Tuscumbia, with a combined force of 15,000 rebels. The cavalry are prepared to operate on the line of Gen. Grant's communications. A party of Wheeler's scouts were captured in Maury county, Tenn., recently, and sent to Nashville. Forrest is reported wounded in the battle near Tuscumbia on the 24th.

WHAT C. L. VALLANDIGHAM SAID!

"I HAVE NOT VOTED FOR ANY ARMY OR NAVY BILL, OR ANY ARMY OR NAVY APPROPRIATION, SINCE THE MEETING OF CONGRESS ON THE 4th OF JULY, 1861.—Vallandigham, Dayton, August, 1862.

"He [Vallandigham] does not think reunion can ever be accomplished by coercion; but goes for peace, hoping that Union may result; BUT AT ANY RATE HE GOES FOR PEACE, PREFERRING EVEN SEPARATION TO SUBJUGATION OR EXTERMINATION."—Wilmington, N. C., Journal.

"I propose to * * * recognize the existence of sections as a fixed fact."

"I propose to establish FOUR instead of two grand sections of the Union."—Speech Feb. 20, 1861.

"Then, sir, I am not a southern man neither—ALTHOUGH IN THIS MOST UNHOLY AND UNCONSTITUTIONAL CRUSADE AGAINST the SOUTH, in the midst of the INVASION, ARSON, INSURRECTION AND MURDER TO WHICH SHE HAS BEEN SUBJECT, and with which she is still threatened—with the TORCH OF THE INCENDIARY AND THE DAGGER OF THE ASSASSIN SUSPENDED OVER HER—MY MOST CORDIAL SYMPATHIES ARE WHOLLY WITH HER."—Page 44, Val's Record.

WHAT H. L. PALMER SAID!

I HOPE TO SEE THE DISGRACEFUL ASSAULT UPON AMERICAN RIGHTS IN THE PERSON OF VALLANDIGHAM, CULMINATE IN HIS ELECTION TO THE OFFICE OF GOVERNOR OF OHIO.

A MODIFICATION.—The war department has at length made a modification of the president's proclamation suspending the habeas corpus act, and hereafter the civil courts will be allowed to take cognizance as heretofore of all cases for the discharge of minors improperly enlisted, and illegally detained by the military authorities.

This announcement is made by the adjutant general in a dispatch to Mr. Simon Stern, a lawyer of New York, in relation to the case of a minor in which he was interested. This decision will afford a sensible relief to the community and legal profession, and relieves from the president's proclamation a feature that has rendered it difficult, if not impossible, to obtain redress for those who cannot legally be detained in the army.

HOW TO CONDUCT THE WAR.—"Always strike an enemy in his most vulnerable part, and as we know of no subject more tender to southern consciences than their slaves, let such a blow be struck as will make every rebel howl with midnight affright, for fear of a servile insurrection!" —Madison Patriot as it was.

One Day For the Country.

An important election is to be held to-morrow in this state. We trust the people of this city realize its transcendant interest. It is not alone that we are to elect state officers, but the people are also to show their detestation of copperheadism. The larger the majority against the friends of the rebels the greater will be the influence of our vote. See what a mighty power the 100,000 majority in Ohio wields. It is felt in England and France, as well as throughout America. The mere election of Brough by a thousand or two majority would have had but a trifling effect, but the majesty of the vast majority is appalling to the rebel cause everywhere.

Let us imitate, as far as possible, the grand example of Ohio and our own neighboring state of Iowa. Roll up the majority mountain high; cover up the disloyal element among us, and bury it so deep that the hand of resurrection can never reach it. It is shameful that such a party exists amongst a loyal people, and let Tuesday night find them wiped out of existence. We must have 20,000 majority in Wisconsin against the copperhead ticket, or feel that we have not done our whole duty.

Turn out, to-morrow, and give one day to your country. Work all day. Entreat your friends not to vote for H. L. Palmer. Look after the old and feeble and get them to the polls early. Hunt up the laggards and the heedless. Let every man say to himself to-night, "I will save at least one vote to-morrow for the Union state ticket," and perform his pledge. So shall victory crown our efforts, and our country be saved.

The National Debt.

The copperhead speakers dwell much upon the national debt which has been caused by the effort to suppress the rebellion. We do not think they have any right to make this objection. When they were turned out of the administration of of the government they left a debt of $90,000,000, although we have had no war in thirteen years. We had peace and prosperity in all our borders, and yet Buchanan so mismanaged matters that he left the chair with this debt. Probably the money was expended in purchasing arms to be distributed by Floyd to the southern rebels.

But do these persons who object to our national debt, expect that a gigantic war like ours can be carried on without money? Let them point, if they can, to any nation which has ever engaged in war without borrowing money. It is not just that this generation should fight the battles of all future generations, and pay the expenses of the war besides. Let those who come after us pay the debt. It is their duty to do so, and we doubt not they will acknowledge and honor the obligation.

Our debt is truly very great, but this is the greatest war that any nation ever engaged in. There have been and are more men employed in it than in any other in the history of the human race, while the material forces engaged in the shape of armored ships, improved implements of war, and railroads, are ten times more various and expensive than during any other war. We should anticipate nothing less than expenditures on a grand scale in a contest involving half a continent and millions of men.

It is too late to say that it is an unnecessary war, since it must be fought out, whatever its cost, or the Union will be divided, and the people have decided that "the Union must and shall be preserved," whatever the expenditure of men and money.

We have, therefore, a war which must be prosecuted, and the expenses of which, necessarily large, must be put in the form of a debt. Patriotic men cannot preserve their consistency and rail against this debt, unless they mean to favor a submission to the rebels. No man who is a friend to his country will now go about howling against a national debt that is necessary for the preservation of the Union.

Our national debt amounted to $1,228,000,000 in September last. Large as this sum is it is less than half the national debt of England and less than two thirds of that of France, and yet those countries were never as prosperous as they are now. The debt of England is $3,917,945,913, with an annual interest of $127,965,706; and that of France is $2,206,000,000, with an annual interest of $110,000,000. This makes a debt in England, for each person, of $135.55; in France of $61.28; and in this country about $36 to each person.

This is not a heavy debt for a young and vigorous people whose material wealth amounted, in real and personal property, according to the census of 1860, to $16,159,616,068, which is more than double what it was in 1850. When it is considered that we add to our national wealth every five years enough to pay our present national debt three times over, we are not in a very dangerous financial condition, and our debt ought not to alarm any sensible person.

We have no doubt that we have added to our wealth as a nation, since the war commenced, more than enough to pay two debts of the present magnitude. If an individual should find his affairs in this financial condition he would not consider himself in any danger, but would press forward with a certainty that with common foresight, economy and industry, he could pay his debts in a few years, and save his whole estate; and such we doubt not will be the judgment of the people. They will pay no heed to copperhead alarmists who desire the war to stop, and are willing that the rebels should succeed.

West Virginia follows the example of Pennsylvania and Ohio, she having elected the Union candidates for congress in her three districts, by large majorities. Blair, Brown and Whaley are the congressmen elect, and they are all unconditional Union men.

The citizens of Bangor, Maine, are to erect a monument of Concord granite, 27 feet high, in memory of the soldiers from that city who have fallen in defence of their country.

Operations of the Draft—Letter from Provost Marshal Fry—Interesting Army Statistics.

PROVOST MARSHAL GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 19, 1863.

SIR:—I have the honor to report for your information certain general facts connected with the draft as shown by reports made up to this time.

The machinery for executing the enrollment act is in complete working order. The law as it stands cannot be made to develope the entire military strength of the nation, and the execution of it has been rendered exceedingly difficult by the efforts made in various ways to resist or evade it, or to escape from its operation.

Its fruits, therefore, are not as abundant as they will be from a perfect law and more thoroughly established system of executing it. All the advantages, however, which could reasonably have been expected from the law are accruing.

Its general principles distribute the burdens of military service fairly among those liable to bear them, but there is perhaps more generosity than justness in some of its humane provisions. With certain modifications which can readily be made by congress, the military strength of the country may, by the direct and indirect operation of this act, be surely and cheaply brought into the field.

Several of the western states have not been subjected to the present draft on account of the excess of volunteers heretofore furnished, and from the same cause the quotas in other western states are rendered quite small; the present draft is therefore but a partial one, and no specific total was established as to the quota for it.

Of those drawn in the present draft, including the 50 per cent. additional, over 80 per cent. have reported in accordance with the orders of the boards. Of the 20 per cent. who have not reported, many are not willful deserters, being unavoidably absent at sea and the like. The deserters are being arrested.

Of all examined, about 30 per cent have been exempted on account of physical disability, about 30 per cent have been exempted under the provisions of the second section of the act, or found not liable to military duty on account of alienage, unsuitableness of age, non-resident, &c. Those who are not liable to military duty, and form no part of the national forces, and therefore have been erroneously enrolled, appear in the general report of the boards among those exempted, because their non-liability to serve could not be established until they came before the boards. The number of the exemptions is thus made to appear much larger than it really is.

About 40 per cent of the men examined have been held to service, and have entered the army in person, furnished substitutes, or paid commutation.

About one-half of those held to service have paid commutation; of the remainder, about one-third have gone in person, and two-thirds have furnished substitutes, and all except a few in transit and a small proportion of deserters from among the earlier substitutes accepted, are in the ranks of their regiments, in front of the enemy. It is fair to suppose that most of those who willfully fail to report, and thus become deserters, are physically fit for service; if they had been examined, the proportion exempted for physical disability would have been reduced to about twenty-five per cent. The proportion of exemptions would be still further reduced by purging the enrollment lists, before draft, of all cases of manifest unfitness, and of aliens and others not liable to military duty, as may be done where this system of raising troops is well established.

The proportions above given are based upon the reports up to this time from the seventy-three congressional districts where the draft has been completed or has most nearly approached completion.

Since the present rebellion began about 200,000 soldiers, after entering service, have been discharged on surgeons' certificare of disability. It is probable that at least one-half of them were unfit for service when received. It may be surely said that $40,000,000 of money was uselessly expended in bringing them into the field, to say nothing of their subsequent expense to the government.

In Great Britain, under the system of voluntary enlistments, the rejections average over 27 per cent. In France, from 1831 to 1842, the average number of exemptions annually was 94,860, so that to secure the contingent of 80,000 men, 174,860 conscripts were annually examined.

Of the recruits who presented themselves for enlistment in our regular army in 1862, 70 per cent. were rejected for physical infirmities, exclusive of age or stature. Between the first of January and the 1st of July last more than one-half were rejected. These were men who desired to be accepted. These proportions are of interest in connection with the fact that less than one-third of the drafted men who desire not to be accepted have been exempted on account of physical unfitness.

There have been but few cases of incompetency, fraud, neglect or abuse in the examination of drafted men. These men have, however, in many ways, been swindled by rouges having no connection with the board of enrollment; as for example, the fact that certain drafted men were physically unfit for service has become known to those sharpers, when it was perhaps not known to the men themselves, and they have so far imposed upon the credulity of the drafted men as to get from them sums of money to secure an exemption, to which the rouges knew they were entitled and would surely receive, and the drafted men, finding themselves exempted as promised, have sometimes thought and given out that they secured exemption by bribery of drafting officers, whereas they were legally entitled to exemption, and have themselves been swindled by sharpers.

All has been done that seemed proper under existing laws to check those evils, and to meet properly the few cases of criminality and incompetency which have occured among the officers at this bureau.

All the expenditures up to this time, on account of this bureau, including the enrollment, draft, and pay of officers and men connected with it, are but little over $1,200,000. These expenditures include all made on account of the machinery which has produced the arrest and return of 20,000 deserters.

The amount of money received from the draft up to this date is about ten times as great as all the expenses incurred on account of the enrollment act; those resulting from the New York riots are not, however, included in this statement, as they are more properly attributable to other causes and other persons than the draft or the officers of this bureau. I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JAMES B. FRY,
Provost Marshal General.

HON. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

THE QUOTA OF NEW YORK.—Provost Marshal General Fry has notified Governor Seymour that the correct quota of New York under the proclamation of October 17th, is 60,378. General Fry also advises Governor Seymour that New York was deficient on the 17th of October 47,657 men, so that the whole number of volunteers to be raised before January next, to avoid a new draft, 108,035.

Our National Finances.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.

The subscription agent reports the sale to-day of government bonds of $6,564,700. The sale for the five days of this week reach twenty millions, and the probability is that ten millions will be taken on Saturday.

The amount remaining unsold does not exceed $150,000,000, which may be taken before the close of November.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—On the first of September last the public debt amounted to $1,228,832,771. It is composed as follows:

Four per cent. temporary loan	127,57[illegible],513 50
Five per cent. temporary loan	77,294,521 00
Old treasury notes	41,000 00
Seven 3 10 loan	139,995,950 00
Two year 6 per cent. loan	276,210 00
Old public debt	67,221,091 90
Suspended requisitions	25,250,000 00
United states treasury notes	3 5,924,250 00
Fractional currency	14,655,250 00
Twenty-year bonds	50,000,000 00
Oregon war debt	876,450 00
Certificate of indebtedness	143,430,487 40
Five twenty bonds	256,139,231 71
Total	$1,228,832,771 71

The total amount of the first issue of fractional currency was $20,192,455. The total amount outstanding a few days ago was $17,462,050.

The total amount of one and two dollar notes issued was $33,776,000. Of these there are now outstanding $22,716,697.

The total amount of five dollar notes issued has been $87,055,000.

The total amount of ten dollar notes issued has been $93,960,000.

On the 1st of May, 1863, the public debt amounted to $964,045,216. The increase in four months, up to September 1, has been $264,787,555—which is at the rate of $66,106,888 75 per month, and over $2,200,000 per day. In connection with this statement, it is proper to say, that a semi-official intimation has been given here that inasmuch as the sales of the five-twenty government 6 per cents amounted for the twenty days of this October to the enormous sum of $36,107,400, (auguring a rapidly increasing popularity,) and the demand from Europe for these bonds increases steadily and without solicitation; and the amount of the loan yet unsold is considerably less than $200,000,000, and at the present rate of sales it will soon be absorbed, the secretary may see fit to withdraw it from the market and obtain what money he needs upon terms more favorable to the government. The fifty millions borrowed at five per cent., interest payable in currency, is referred to, and a contrast between that interest and the interest on the five twenties, which, payable in gold, is equivalent to nine per cent.

The sales of five-twenties during the past week amounted to $9,453,950, and were distributed as follows:

In New York and vicinity	$2,093,900
In Boston and vicinity	1,021,650
In the state of Rhode Island	156,900
In the state of Pennsylvania	2,319,600
In the state of New Jersey	123,400
In the state of Delaware	7,000
In the state of Maryland	689,000
In the district of Columbia	49,300
In the state of Western Virginia	17,400
In the state of Ohio	285,000
In the state of Indiana	50,700
In the state of Illinois	163,000
In the state of Wisconsin	143,000
In the state of Michigan	48,200

Last Night's Report.

VICKSBURG, Oct. 28, via Cairo, 31.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—It is and has been raining for more than twenty four hours. Everything is very dull. There is no news of interest. The military commission to examine the title to property by loyalty is in session. There does not seem to have been any rebels among this people. All were loyal but compelled to seem friendly to the confederacy. Those not owning property are less loyal than the wealthy. Wealth is a great incentive to Union sentiments.

CAIRO, Oct. 31, 1863.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The town of Tuscumbia has been captured by our forces, and Gen. Osterhaus' division is now in possession, but I was unable to learn the date or particulars of the occurrence. It is supposed by my informant that it took place on the 27th inst. Firing was heard, at least, in that direction on that day.

Forrest and Wheeler's rebel forces are in the vicinity, endeavoring to prevent our troops froom advancing.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.

The subscription agent reports the sales 16,500,000 five-twenties on Saturday, making over 360,000,000.

Some delay may be experienced in the delivery of large subscriptions, but it is the intention as far as possible to deliver on subscriptions all amounts less than 3,000. The public will bear in mind that less than $150,000,000 of these bonds remain unsold, and that foreign completion is very heavy. The loan will probably all be taken by the first of December, and there is no obligation on the part of the treasurer to retain it for public bidding.

The last $100,000,000 will therefore be taken by capitalists, trust companies and bankers for investments, and it is the wish of the subscription agent, to avoid any favoritism to combinations by giving the people timely notice of the contingencies of the loan being consumed and summarily placed beyond their reach, except at a premium.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.

At the suggestion of numerous medical officers attached to the hospitals in this city, a large number of sick and wounded soldiers have been, and are being, furloughed for a short time, in order that they may be sent to their homes in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Michigan, and other states.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.

The steamship Heola from Liverpool 20th, via Queenstown 21st, arrived this forenoon. She brings few items of news.

The Levant Herald confirms that the Porte offered to purchase the rams in the Mersey at Laird's price—£130,000 each.

Mason, the southern commissioner, was again in England, the guest of W. S. Lindsey, of London.

France refuses to guarantee the Mexican loan, and there is trouble between Maximillian and the French government on that question.

Official news from Japan states that in the attack on and the destruction of Kagosima, the English fleet lost eleven killed and thirty wounded. Captains Goslin and Wilmost were killed.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 1.

An extraordinary case of treason has recently come to light, implicating several persons in this city, Columbus, Covington and Newport, in conspiring to release rebel prisoners at Camp Chase and overthrow the state government. The conspiracy was brought to light by United States detectives, who were supposed by the parties implicated to be spies from the rebel army, and were treated with full confidence.

The plot, as disclosed to the detectives, was that an attack be made on Camp Chase, release the prisoners confined there, numbering 3,500, seize the arsenal at Columbus, take possession of the penitentiary, release John Morgan and other officers confined there, and then was to commence a rebel campaign in Ohio. United States Marshal Sands and Provost Marshal Beany arrested the following persons implicated in the plot:

Chas. W. H. Cathcart, of Columbus, formerly school commissioner of Ohio.

J. D. Cressap, of Columbus, formerly sutler of the 18th regulars, who were to lead the attack on Camp Chase.

James D. Patton, of Covington, a regular agent of the rebel government, who frequently furnished money to detectives, under the impression they were spies, and according to agreement met Cathcart and others at Camp Chase, and assisted to mature the plan of attack.

Ruth McDonald, of Covington, who acted as mail-carrier through the rebel lines, and whose house was the headquarters of the rebels.

Samuel P. Thomas, merchant tailor of Cincinnati, and his wife, and Catharine Parmenter, of Cincinnati.

Information was obtained that an organization exists in Illinois, waiting for the outbreak in Ohio to produce similar results in that state. Other particulars are known to the authorities, but not yet made public.

CAIRO, Nov. 1.

I have the Memphis Bulletin of the 30th ult. The news is unimportant.

Private advices from below report Sherman skirmishing daily with Lee, Roddy and Forest. Everything in the war line in that region is contraband.

A heavy rain fell at Memphis.

The steamer Mary E. Forsyth arrived to-night, 28 hours from Memphis. She brings dates to the evening of the 31st.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.

Col. Robert Nugent, A. A. P. M. Gen., New York.

The representations made by Dean Richmond and Peter Cagger in a printed circular dated October 27, 1863, in respect to the actions of the provost marshal general are untrue. It is not true that the state of New York is charged as with a deficiency for every citizen who has paid the three hundred dollar commutation money receiving no credit therefor. On the contrary the state receives the same credit for a man who has paid commutation as if the drafted citizen had gone in person or furnished the substitute, and in like manner towns which have raised the money to pay for their quotas receive the same credit as if actual substitutes had been furnished.

The president has ordered that every citizen who has paid the $300 commutation, shall receive the same credit therefor as if he had furnished a substitute, and is exonorated from military service for the time for which he was drafted, to-wit, for three years.

As the misrepresentations of Dean Richmond and Peter Cagger have been published and circulated for electioneering purposes, it is proper that you give them immediate correction.

JAMES B. FRY,
Provost Marshal General.

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.

Special to Tribune.—We learn from the army of the Potomac that the principal movements of late have been a change of position of the different corps. These changes have occasioned skirmishes, but without serious loss on either side. Guerrillas continue their depredations on wagon trains. The impression prevailed at headquarters that Lee is disposed to fight, and Meade's intention was to accommodate him at the earliest opportunity. There are those, however, who continue to think Lee's army has been materially reduced, and any show of intention to fight is merely to conceal his weakness.

Times' special.—A gentleman just from Richmond says the rebel government is seizing all boots and shoes in that city for the use of Lee's army, which is almost barefooted.

Two Herald correspondents, Messrs. Hart and Hendricks, were gobbled yesterday at Auburn by Mosby's guerrillas.

Maj. Gen. Butler has been assigned to the command of the 18th army corps, department of Virginia and North Carolina, in place of Gen. Foster, who is ordered to report here to the adjutant general. Circumstances indicate that Gen. Foster will have the command of the defences of Washington.

The World's Army of the Potomac dispatch of Sunday says it is still quiet. There has not been any firing on our front for the last three days. The Army of the Potomac is in excellent position on its line of supplies. Should any contingency arise it can with equal facility be concentrated either to advance, or repulse the enemy. To-morrow the railroad between Alexandria and Warrenton will be again open.

The Herald has the following:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.

The usual Sunday rumors of battles and skirmishing prevail to-day. All of them, however, have been traced to the fact of the unusual stir prevailing in those bureaus of the war department immediately connected with the movements of the army, and, certain preparations have been observed usually made upon the eve of a great battle. It is known that Meade on our side and Lee on the other are manoeuvering for a favorable position, but the opinion prevails in military circles here that Lee will not risk a battle outside of his entrenchments on the south side of the Rapidan, which can be held by a small force against a great army, and leave him at liberty to send a part of his forces to meet an attack in a body and compel it, as before, to fall back north of the Rappahannock.

Brig. Gen. Hatch has been assigned to duty at St. Louis, in charge of the cavalry department to be established at that point.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

CAPE RACE, Nov. 1.

The steamer China, from Liverpool 24th, and Queenstown 25th, passed here Saturday evening. News unimportant.

Cotton has better, closed less firm. Breadstuffs steady. Provisions dull, with tending downward; closed quiet and steady. Consuls 93a93⅛.

The London Herald says the capture of the steamer Sir Robert Peel off Rio Grande by the federals needs attention. It is alleged there was not the slightest ground for the seizure. A Paris letter to the London Daily News anticipates that the semi-official press of Paris will receive orders to say, that after all the Mexican people simply desire annexation to France.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.

Flour dull for common, firm for good, at 6.20a6.25 for extra state; 7.20a7.30 for R H O. Wheat receipts 230,276; dull, 1a2c lower at 1.20a1.35 for Chicago spring and Milwaukee club; 1.36a1.37 for No. 1 do; 1.37a1.43 for red winter. Corn receipts 44,145; dull at 1.06 for mixed in store. Oats quiet at 81a83. Stocks dull and lower. Money is exceedingly active at 9. Sterling nominal. No quotations of gold received.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 2.

The Journal learns that S. D. Lee, Wheeler, Roddy and Forrest are in the neighborhood of Decatur, Courtland and Tuscumbia, with a combined force of 15,000 rebels. The cavalry are prepared to operate on the line of Gen. Grant's communications. A party of Wheeler's scouts were captured in Maury county, Tenn., recently, and sent to Nashville. Forrest is reported wounded in the battle near Tuscumbia on the 24th.

Meeting at Hanover.

Messrs. Editors: In accordance with previous notice, the citizens of Hanover and vicinity met, expecting to hear Messrs Smith, Bates, and Allen. Those speakers not being present, the meeting organized by electing Mr. R. Clark, chairman, and A. C. Douglass, secretary. J. W. Jones, Esq, was called out, and made a very eloquent and appropriate speech. He was followed by R. J. Gilbert and others, who entertained the audience till a late hour. From present appearance count Plymouth wide awake, and all right for the Union.

Yours, &c.,

CONCERT.—The Old Folks' Concert, in costume, for the benefit of the Soldiers' Aid Society of Emerald Grove, will be repeated on Wednesday evening, November 4th, at the Methodist church. Concert will commence at half past seven o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

☞ To morrow is the day for a general copperhead hunt in Wisconsin. It is hoped that every loyal man will come out prepared to administer a dose of the same kind of medicine to them that Doct. Gilmore is giving to "Sister Carrie" at Charleston though in a diluted form and filtered thro' a ballot box. It is the best medium yet discovered for the cholery—as it prevails at the south.

NEW STORE.—E. Hernstadt has rented the store first door south of the Main street entrance of the Myers House, formerly occupied as a hat store. He is now receiving a large assortment of dry goods, fancy goods, ready made clothing, gents furnishing goods, hats and caps, which he promises to sell at low prices.

ANOTHER NEW STORE.—W. H. Brown, a manufacturer of hats and caps, from Auburn, N. Y., has purchased the stock in the store of Mr. Hollister, and removed it to the adjoining store in Myers' block, where he will add a new and large stock of goods, including a costly lot of furs. Such evidences of the growth of the business of the city is indeed gratifying.

☞ Capt. Jay has lately arrived from Japan, where he has been travelling for the past five years in search of Chinese and Japanese curiosities. His collection is on exhibition next door to Richardson's store. Go and see them.

NOTICE.—The regular monthly business meeting of Sec. 1, Battery "A," W. S. M. will be held at their armory this evening, at 7 o'clock.

R. B. TREAT, Lieut.

Lieut. Maury, in his recent letter to the Times (London), showing how and why the rebellion must succeed, says:

"THERE IS ALREADY A PEACE PARTY AT THE NORTH. ALL THE EMBARASSMENTS WITH WHICH THAT PARTY CAN SURROUND MR. LINCOLN, AND ALL THE DIFFICULTIES THAT IT CAN THROW IN THE WAY OF THE WAR PARTY IN THE NORTH OPERATE DIRECTLY AS SO MUCH AID AND COMFORT TO THE SOUTH."

H. L. Palmer is the head and front of this "peace party" in Wisconsin. Union men should put it out of his power, to give "aid and comfort to the south."

DEPOPULATION OF IRELAND.—A Dublin correspondent of the Tablet, a Catholic paper, writing under date of October 9th, has this significant paragraph:

"Still decreasing, man, and beast, and produce. The annual return of the register general for the present year shows a state of things in Ireland unparalleled, I dare say, in any other country in the world. To begin with the failures relating to human business, from these official documents we learn that in the seven months which have passed of the present year, 80,609 persons left Ireland, being an increase of 84,687 over 1862; there is a decrease, compared with 1862, of 141,719 acres of land under cereal crops, and a net decrease of 19,358 acres under green crops, compared with last year. The number of head of cattle in Ireland has also considerably decreased since 1862. At this rate it would not be a very difficult exercise to calculate the period when Ireland may be expected to be a desert island."

Never attempt to talk much about that which you do not understand.

Meeting at Hanover.

Messrs. Editors: In accordance with previous notice, the citizens of Hanover and vicinity met, expecting to hear Messrs Smith, Bates, and Allen. Those speakers not being present, the meeting organized by electing Mr. R. Clark, chairman, and A. C. Douglass, secretary. J. W. Jones, Esq., was called out, and made a very eloquent and appropriate speech. He was followed by R. J. Gilbert and others, who entertained the audience till a late hour. From present appearance count Plymouth wide awake, and all right for the Union.

Yours, &c.,
A. C. Douglass, Sec'y.

CONCERT.—The Old Folks' Concert, in costume, for the benefit of the Soldiers' Aid Society of Emerald Grove, will be repeated on Wednesday evening, November 4th, at the Methodist church. Concert will commence at half past seven o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

☞ To morrow is the day for a general copperhead hunt in Wisconsin. It is hoped that every loyal man will come out prepared to administer a dose of the same kind of medicine to them that Doct. Gilmore is giving to "Sister Carrie" at Charleston though in a diluted form and filtered thro' a ballot box. It is the best medium yet discovered for the cholery—as it prevails at the south.

NEW STORE.—E. Hernstadt has rented the store first door south of the Main street entrance of the Myers House, formerly occupied as a hat store. He is now receiving a large assortment of dry goods, fancy goods, ready made clothing, gents' furnishing goods, hats and caps, which he promises to sell at low prices.

ANOTHER NEW STORE.—W. H. Brown, a manufacturer of hats and caps, from Auburn, N. Y., has purchased the stock in the store of Mr. Hollister, and removed it to the adjoining store in Myers' block, where he will add a new and large stock of goods, including a costly lot of furs. Such evidences of the growth of the business of the city is indeed gratifying.

☞ Capt. Jay has lately arrived from Japan, where he has been travelling for the past five years in search of Chinese and Japanese curiosities. His collection is on exhibition next door to Richardson's store. Go and see them.

NOTICE.—The regular monthly business meeting of Sec. 1, Battery "A," W. S. M. will be held at their armory this evening, at 7 o'clock. R. B. TREAT, Lieut.

Lieut. Maury, in his recent letter to the Times (London), showing how and why the rebellion must succeed, says:

"THERE IS ALREADY A PEACE PARTY AT THE NORTH. ALL THE EMBARASSMENTS WITH WHICH THAT PARTY CAN SURROUND MR. LINCOLN, AND ALL THE DIFFICULTIES THAT IT CAN THROW IN THE WAY OF THE WAR PARTY IN THE NORTH, OPERATE DIRECTLY AS SO MUCH AID AND COMFORT TO THE SOUTH."

H. L. Palmer is the head and front of this "peace party" in Wisconsin. Union men should put it out of his power, to give "aid and comfort to the south."

DEPOPULATION OF IRELAND.—A Dublin correspondent of the Tablet, a Catholic paper, writing under date of October 9th, has this significant paragraph:

"Still decreasing, man, and beast, and produce. The annual returns of the register-general for the present year shows a state of things in Ireland unparalleled, I dare say, in any other country in the world. To begin with the failures relating to human business, from these official documents we learn that in the seven months which have passed of the present year, 89,609 persons left Ireland, being an increase of 84,657 over 1862; there is a decrease, compared with 1862, of 144,719 acres of land under cereal crops, and a net decrease of 19,358 acres under green crops, compared with last year. The number of head of cattle in Ireland has also considerably decreased since 1862. At this rate it would not be a very difficult exercise to calculate the period when Ireland may be expected to be a desert island."

Never attempt to talk much about that which you do not understand.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINES.

Our LETTER A FAMILY SEWING MACHINE is fast gaining a world-wide reputation. It is beyond doubt the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Family Sewing Machines yet offered to the public. No other Family Sewing Machine has so many useful appliances for hemming, binding, felling, tucking, gathering, gauging, braiding, embroidering, cording, and so forth. No other Family Sewing Machine has so much capacity for a great variety of work. It will sew all kinds of cloth, and with all kinds of thread. Great and recent improvements make our Family Sewing Machine most reliable, and most durable, and most certain in action at all rates of speed. It makes the interlocked stitch which is the best stitch known. Any one, even of the most ordinary capacity, can see, at a glance, how to use the letter A Family Sewing Machine. Our Family Sewing Machines are finished in chaste and exquisite style.

The Folding Case of the Family Machine is a piece of cunning workmanship of the most useful kind. It protects the machine when not in use, and when about to be operated may be opened as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work. While some of the Cases, made out of the choicest woods, are finished in the simplest and chastest manner possible, others are adorned and embellished in the most costly and superb manner.

It is absolutely necessary to see the Family Machine in operation, so as to judge of its great capacity and beauty.

It is fast becoming as popular for family sewing as our Manufacturing machines are for manufacturing purposes.

The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c., of the very best quality.

AN IMPORTANT DISCOVERY OR INVENTION!

THE undersigned has, during the winter of 1862—3, while the prices of linseed oil ran so extremely high made a very important discovery of an

OIL FOR PAINTING!

It is entirely new—an original article—so far as my knowledge extends respecting it. It is composed of materials easy to be obtained—which are within the reach of any mechanic or artist. Its constituent parts are mineral, animal, and vegetable, and nothing that is offensive, or unhealthy therein being in it no poisonous drugs, nor anything but what is used in every family except for the dryer.

I have found it, to my satisfaction, to be fully equal if not superior, to linseed oil, for a foundation coat for any painting. I have used it for all kinds of painting that is within my range of business. I have this season (succeeding its discovery) done the entire painting (or first two coats of paint) on the new white brick house that I have had the superintendence of, on Bluff street, which may be examined at any time, by any person. There can also be seen specimens of painting, and samples of the oil, at Doty's Sash and Glass Depot, MAIN ST., JANESVILLE.

As the article will, in a great degree, take the place of linseed oil, both on account of its cheapness and real merit, I conceive it to be a most valuable discovery and offer it to the public for a satisfactory trial.

The article can be had, with directions for its use, at any time, by calling upon me, at Doty's Sash and Glass Depot. Z. S. DOTY.
